In the province of Viterbo, more precisely in "Borgo Carbonara" (hamlet of the village of "Acquapendente"), a town in Lazio which borders Umbria and Tuscany, we offer for sale a property surrounded by greenery located in an area of high landscape and cultural value.

The property consists of:
the main house, whose charm has remained unaltered over time.

Six independent two-level apartments, which are built in the former stable.

Another apartment, built in what once used to be the village church (the church could also be reconsecrated).

A park of about 3 hectares surrounds the exclusive property, including a swimming pool, a warehouse, a chestnut grove and tall trees.

A wood of about 30 hectares

This is the place where the family of Counts Valentini built this house in the eighteenth century, once as a coal deposit (hence the name of the Podere) and then, over the centuries, it was transformed at first into a hunting lodge and then into a family vacation home. The Valentini coat of arms is still present on the small tower of the main house.
